Limitations and Exclusions

We will not pay benefits for loss caused by any of the following:

- As a result of war or an act of war while the Covered Person is serving in any civilian non-combatant unit serving with the U.S. military, provided such death occurs while serving in such units or within six months after termination of service in such units, whichever is earlier.
- As a result of the special hazards incident to service in any civilian non-combatant unit serving with the U.S. military, if the cause of death occurs while the Covered Person is serving in such units and is outside the home area, provided such death occurs outside the home area or within six months after the Covered Person's return to the home area while serving in such units or within six months after the termination of service in such units, whichever is earlier.
- As a result of war or an act of war, within two years from the Effective Date of coverage, while the Covered Person is not serving in the U.S. military, if the cause of death occurs while the Covered Person is outside the home area, provided such death occurs outside the home area or within six months after the Covered Person's return to the home area.
- As a result of air travel, in any sort of vehicle, except as a fare-paying passenger traveling on a regularly scheduled flight by an airline, the death benefit will be limited to the amount of premium paid for the Covered Person and no accidental death benefit will be payable.
- Suicide within the first two years of a Covered Person's Effective Date under this Policy or the date of reinstatement with respect to a Covered Person.

For the purposes of this section, "home area" means the 50 states of the United States and its territories, the District of Columbia and Canada.

"War" includes, but is not limited to, declared war, and armed aggression by one or more countries resisted on orders of any other country, combination of countries or international organization. "Act of war" means any act peculiar to military, naval or air operations in time of war.

In the event of death by any of these excluded acts, benefits will be limited to the premium paid for coverage on the Covered Person.

Term Life coverage is renewable to the earlier of the death of the Policyholder, or the first renewal after your 85th birthday, provided there is compliance with plan provisions, including dependent eligibility requirements. The policy includes an initial five year rate guarantee and National General Accident & Health has the right to change premium rates upon providing appropriate notice.

For use in every state EXCEPT: CO, CT, NY, VT, WA
